FRANKENSTEIN'S BRIDE HEAD

EASY

WHAT YOU'LL NEED:

- 'Shamrock' Decofoam Lady Head
- 'Americana' Multi-Surface Satin Paint 59ml- Apple Green
- Permanent Marker
- Greylead pencil
- 'ClubHouse' 30cm Chenille Stems- White (30pc pack)
- 'ClubHouse' 30cm Chenille Stems- Black (3x 100pc pack)

Step 1. Paint your decofoam head green, avoiding the eye indentations. Two coats are recommended, leaving time to dry between each.

Step 2. Use a black permanent marker to draw in lips, eyebrows, eyeliner and pupils. Add in irises with greylead pencil. Use the greylead to mark out the desired hairline for your scary lady.

Step 3. Curl each chenille stem around a pencil to get consistent curls, leaving a short straight bit at one end to insert into the head. Start with the white stems and cluster these around each temple and then begin to fill in the rest of the head using the black stems, working from the hairline back. Depending on your intended use, you may wish to use a dollop of hot glue (low temp gun recommended) to hold each chenille stem in place, but this is optional.
